

Coyote Love Notes

Coyote Love = Spirit-Infused, New York City Style, Rock and Soul

October, The Month of the Harvest!

Sometimes, in this urban environment, it is easy to forget that in much of the world, including here in New York State, it is harvest time. If it weren't for supermarkets, refrigerated shipping, nitrates and a bunch of other neat stuff...we wouldn't have fresh apples and potatoes and carrots and corn and wheat until this time of the year. Why do we like pumpkins at Halloween? Probably because they were the biggest, orangest things being harvested in the original 13 colonies at the end of October. What is Halloween? Actually a bastardization of a bunch of other rituals that all center on the fact that at Harvest time we are happy as shit because we can eat the colorful tasty stuff that has been growing since April.

So here's a big shout-out to all the seasonal farmers in the world that just spent the last month picking the food they grew all summer. Here's another shout-out to Mother Earth who provides all this wonderful food right out of her own body, and finally to the Great Spirit who dreamed up the whole idea of creating walking, talking sentient beings like us who get to appreciate this wonderful cycle.

A Month As Big As A Harvest Moon For Coyote Love!

Yes 'Rocktober' will be packed with neat stuff for our little band-that-can!

Seeds we have been sewing since we officially launched last November are coming to fruit. Won't you share in our harvest?

FREE COYOTE LOVE T-shirt or ladies V-neck or tank top for the First 20 people to BUY TICKETS (More below).

We are opening the competition at 8pm! Apparently this is because our band and our brand of Spirit-Infused, NYC style, Rock and Soul embodies the spirit of this New York-centric Indie music festival.

Yes tickets are $20, but you are paying to see Coyote Love play in one of NYC's most prestigious venues. If I was rich I'd buy your ticket for you because we need audience BADLY at this show. But besides our own clothing give-aways...there is a lot of extra great stuff going on for the audience besides just watching 10 hand-picked bands battle it out for a huge cache of prizes and PR support.

- There are door prizes for some of you lucky friends. Such as...

- Dinner for 2 at Blue Smoke
- Dinner for 2 at JoeDoe
- Day Spa package at Euphoria Spa
- And finally, Rock Your Can at BoB Quarterly...bring canned goods to the show and that food will go directly to the hungry that night

Can we actually win this going up (once again) against bands with years of touring under their belts and well developed fan bases? Yes we actually can. First of all, there are actual judges at this competition. Thus mob rule is not as strong as a factor as it might be. They are professionals from the industry. There are three criteria; quality of performance, originality, and audience response. We think we have the first two covered. At least that is what you all have been telling us. That last one, audience response, is where you come in. If make one show this year PLEASE MAKE IT THIS ONE! I'll say it again. PLEASE HELP HANK, RACHEL, SERGIO, DARREN, SEAN AND GIDEON (who represents all 6 of our drummers) win this competition by coming and screaming loud enough to make an impression. BUY YOUR TICKETS NOW!!! AND EMAILS US AT coyotelove@verizon.net to let us know about it.

THE FIRST 20 TICKETS COME WITH A FREE T-SHIRT, LADIES V-NECK OR TANK-TOP!!! Buy multiple ticks and get multiple shirts to keep or to give to a loved one. THAT'S RIGHT! Buy tickets and Just EMAIL US, tell us how many ticks you ordered and the Size and style of shirt(s) you want and they will be there at the show for YOU! Colors are based on availability.

When you buy 5 tickets at once and the cost is reduced to $18!!!

What would Coyote Love get if we one?

Enough to help us turn the corner in some areas of PR support, recording expenses and equipment. The reputation alone for winning a competition at NYC's Highline Ballroom is HUGE for a little-band-that-can like ours.

The official Prizes:

- The Village Voice which will promote the winning band the week following the show.
- Equipment from Guitar Center,
- Equipment from Sam Ash Music Store
- A Mastering Session at Sterling Sound

Roxbury, NY, Here We Come!

Plattepalooza is the name Plattekill Mountain has given to the huge weekend of festivities that they are kicking off the fall and winter season with this Saturday, 10/9/10. Chris Cook (Executive Producer on the "Coyote Love" CD) was a very good boy and set us up, not only with the Plattepalooza show this Saturday but with a show that night at the "T Bar" down the road from Plattekill Mountain. PSYCHED! Roxbury is an awesome town with a lot of cool conscious activity happening. "I'm a big fan of the swing in mindset I see in the area," says Hank. "There's more gift economy, more trading, more green tech everywhere, and the Roxbury area has all kinds of neat stuff going on. So when Chris insisted that we start playing up here, it was a no-brainer. Especially in a town with a good, strong arts council (the Roxbury Arts Group). And Plattekill is such a groovy, homey little lodge. They have a ski and bike swap going down as well. That is totally righteous.”

On a side note, Chris Cook has taken his voice-over talent, his love of sports, and his massive need for attention...and put together his own Sunday night sports show on Roxbury's new radio station WIOX. Check it out if you are ever in the Roxbury/Arkville/Margaretville area. 10pm on Sundays. Informative and funny as shit. <http://wroxradio.blogspot.com/>

Active Fundraising Status!

We are getting closer to our goal of raising $3000 for our Caribbean Tour. The fundraising party at P&G, with special guests Ceiling Unlimited, was a blast. We didn't quite have the turn out that we hoped but it we raised a little cash towards the tour and honestly had one of the best shows ever. Look for more Unlimited Love collaborations in the future.

Currently we have raised $1650 towards our $3000 goal that must be reached by NOVEMBER or we have to give it all back. OUCH. So if you are feeling like you might be able to donate to us and help us go on our first tour off of the continent please click here (<http://kck.st/aUTDcW>). You might even feel good about yourself. Actor/Director/Yoga Master Howard Thoresen donated $300 just the other day. He feels very good about himself now. See. Aren't we nice?

P&G MMMM So Good.

We are back at P&G next Wed (Oct 13th) for a nice late night chill show. 10-midnight. Come check us out. Totally free. 2 pool tables. Great bar. Fantastic sound. Need we say more?
