

Coyote Love Notes

Coyote Love = Spirit-Infused, New York City Style Rock and Soul

HANK'S BIRTHDAY SHOW

Friday 3/12/10 10pm Local 269, 269 E. Houston (A&B)

Older and bolder, Hank is throwing his Birthday show at the colorful Lower-East-Side rock hole "The Local 269" at 269 East Houston Street. The night is actually the date of Hank's Birthday so come celebrate his multiple decades of insanity on planet Earth. Coyote has arranged to share the evening with brother and conscious rapper and producer SABERTOOTH (11pm) and good friends SUPERMAJOR at Midnight. It can and will get very very funky. Sure the door charges $10 but that's three diverse, wildly talented NYC original acts for your money! Fitting that we are in the "Bargain District" of Loisida NYC. If you read our last newsletter you'll know why the band loves this sleazy little joint.

COYOTE PLAYS IN SUPPORT OF THE ASPCA

Fontana's NYC, 105 Eldridge Street. Wednesday 4/7/10, 8PM

After our last gig at The Local 269, the members of a band called "The What 4" got in touch with us to say that they loved our sound, that they were arranging the music for an ASPCA benefit, and asked if we would like to take part. Being a dog's dog, Hank was all go. Fortunately the band was too. We've had good shows at Fonatana's in the Emergenza competition and we like playing there so....COME AND SUPPORT THE HUMANE TREATMENT OF ANIMALS!!!

SHOWS & VIBES AT P&G ARE AS GOOD AS PROMISED

Steve Chahal's at P&G on 78th and Columbus is a man with a vision. What he envisioned for the new P&G is a neighborhood place where Upper West-Siders (and our guests) can feel at home, play some pool, and hear great music with no cover charge. On Sunday's, during the day, P&G often hosts family events as well. His vision is a reality. Our show there in February was lovely and Steve and his staff loved the band (always a good thing). The only complaint we got was that Hank is too polite when asking saucy barmaid, 'Becca, for a drink. And that came from 'Becca herself. Working on it...Bitch. How you like me now?

Our next show will be Thursday March 18th from 8pm-10pm. FREE!!! Steve likes out originals as well as our covers so we plan on giving him another good show full of Soulful jams by Coyote Love and by the giants of Rock, Funk, Soul and Blues music that have inspired us. We want to take up a semi-permanent residency and develop a scene there so please come and support our efforts at the only establishment that Coyote can't find anything to complain about. Well there was that "Turn the bass amp down" thing with the sound guy but I guess we can let that slide.

URBAN COYOTES SPOTED AT COLUMBIA U.

Now there's one thing you gotta love. The other day, a family of three Coyotes was spotted prowling the grounds of Columbia University. Hank's Dad lives a block away on 114th St. Coincidence? Hmmm.

Recently a Coyote was pursued by police in West Chelsea. After a whole team of cops chased it, dart guns at the ready for a few hours, our Coyote disappeared in the vicinity of The West Side Highway and 57th Street. Just trying to make it home boys. Better luck next time.

You can look up both these stories online. Seems Coyotes are taking back Manhattan. Lapdog sandwich anyone?
